

Re- Bill of Rights Submission 7.11 .01

Innocent Victims of Terrorism ▪ pre 1985

Submission 55
Mr Robert Anderson

The Bill of Rights for N. Ireland must differentiate the difference between an innocent Victim of Terrorism and a Victim of the troubles.

Victims of Terrorism pre-1985 and the new legislation that insued after this date did not balance the unjust way in which those victims and their surviving families had been treated by the British Government and statutory agencies pre ▪ 1985.

In forming a Bill of Rights this injustice must be addressed at all costs.

The innocent victims must see that a Bill of Rights is for all and especially those who have been murdered unjustly by terrorists in the past 33 years of the troubles.

Robert Anderson.
